What does the person (or group) typically experience?

Register in application	Visit website or app	Search for favourite news	Browse news	View detail on a single news
Most customers discover city as they are reading news	A customer navigates to the news section of our website or app	The customer types a city, dates, and the number of people who will attend the tour to see what tours are available	The customer sees available tours for their dates, city, and number of people	After seeing a tour that interests them, the customer clicks or taps to view more. They see information about what and where the tour will cover, plus its price, time of day, and tour guide.

Start purchase of a tour	Complete payment information	Confirm payment & book tour	Email confirmation	Email reminder
After deciding to go on this tour, they click the Purchase button	They fill out their contact and credit card information, then continue	They see a summary of what they are about to purchase, then they confirm and the tour is booked!	An email immediately sends to confirm their tour and provide details about where and when to meet their guide	One day before the tour begins, a reminder email is sent to all tour participants. The email emphasizes where and when to meet, and what to bring (if applicable).

Arrive at tour location	Meet the guide & group	Experience the tour	Leave the guide & group	Prompt for review	Writing & submitting review
Using their own means of transportation, the customer makes their way to the tour location at the scheduled time.	Tour participants meet the guide and other people who have joined the same tour	The guide brings the group around the area, explaining things as they go. Typically this lasts about 3 hours.	The guide wraps up the tour and everyone heads their separate ways	One hour after the tour finishes, an email and in-app notification prompt the tour participant for a review	The tour participant writes a review and gives the tour a star-rating out of 5.

Tour appears in the user profile	Personalized recommendations	Personalized tour offers	Personalized tour suggestions after new travel booking
The completed tour appears on the "past experiences" area of a customer's profile with a few details on where the group went	Participation in the tour informs our backend recommendation system, which the customer may experience via better personalization	The customer receives an email 14 days after their tour with personalized recommendations for other tours	When a past tour participant books new travel with us, we show them personalized tour recommendations in their email city.

Interactions

What interactions do they have at each step along the way?

People: Who do they see or talk to?

Places: Where are they?

Things: What digital touchpoints or physical objects would they use?

Positive moments

What steps does a typical person find enjoyable, productive, fun, motivating, delightful, or exciting?

It's fun to look at options and imagine doing each tour, like shopping for experiences	Tour photos, videos, and explanations are exciting to see
--	---

It's reassuring to read reviews written by past travelers

Excitement about the purchase ("Here we go!")	Current payment flow is very bare-bones and simple	We've heard from several people that the reminder emails were essential, especially if they booked way in advance
---	--	---

Our guides tend to be so good that people are reassured when they meet their guide	People love the tour itself, we have a 98% satisfaction rating
--	--

People generally leave tours feeling refreshed and inspired

People like looking back on their past trips

We think people like these recommendations because they have an extremely high engagement rate
--

Negative moments

What steps does a typical person find frustrating, confusing, angering, costly, or time-consuming?

People sometimes forget to put in their dates or number of people, which leads them to discover tours they can't actually attend	Several people expressed "information overload" as they browse	People express a bit of fear of commitment at this step
--	--	---

Trepidation about the purchase ("I hope this will be worth it!")
--

People expressed awkwardness about finding their guide in a public place	Sometimes people are matched up with tour participants that they don't really like
--	--

People are unclear whether a tip is necessary, especially for non-Americans on an American tour	Customers report feeling review fatigue	People describe leaving a review as an arduous process
---	---	--

People feel peer pressure to tip a guide when someone else on the tour tips, leaving them feeling weird and bad if they don't	We have very low review rates (15% of people review experiences and tours)
